CHRISTIANS CONFER.

Stanford Full of Earnest Workers.

A Glorious Meeting and A Splendid Attendance.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE TWO BODIES.

The 12th annual convention of the Christian Women's Board of Missions convened at the Christian church Monday evening at 8 o'clock, with a large attendance. In the absence of the president, Mrs. L. W. Harrison, Mrs. W. S. Keene, of Winchester, vice-president, gracefully presided. Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. I. J. Spencer and excellent papers were read by Mrs. Burch, Miss Minnie Loos and Mrs. Mary O. Evans.

The excessive heat of the day before gave away Tuesday to refreshing showers, which were not sufficient, however, to keep the crowd away from the exercises, which began after a social half hour, with devotional exercises by Miss Jessie Judd. After the appointment of the usual committee, Mrs. Keene delivered an address full of information concerning the objects and accomplishments of the board. She was followed by Miss Susie Sublett, the capable State secretary, in a report which showed that the Ky. C. W. B. M. for 1895 had 70 auxiliaries, 16 new do, five re-organized, 21 observed C. W. B. M. way, with offerings, amounting to $276.49, 11 missionary libraries reported, six new life members. Total number of members 1,694. Tithings taken 367, State fund $777.62. Total contributions reported $4,114.32.

The report of the treasurer, Mrs. O. L. Bradley and Mrs. O. E. Hagerman's report of children's work were both satisfactory and encouraging. Mrs. J. J. Haley made a very interesting address and the morning session closed with an hour of prayer conducted by Mrs. Eaton. In the afternoon the prayer service was conducted by Mrs. Bettie Bullock, after which Prof. W. H. Cord reported on the mountain mission work, which showed how great amount of good was being accomplished by it. A number of district managers made gratifying reports.

At night Mrs. Bayne conducted the Honor Roll call, which was responded to in a number of well prepared papers by ladies, who had been selected to do so, after which Prof. H. L. Willett, of Chicago, delivered an address on the splendid work that is being done by this noble band of women and that of other similar organizations. Prof. Willett holds a chair in Chicago University and is a very learned man. His delivery was fine and his language ornate.

The officers elected for the next term are Mrs. W. S. Keene, president; Mrs. O. E. Hagerman, 1st vice-president; Mrs. I. J. Spencer, of Louisville, 2d do; Miss Susie Sublett, of Lexington, secretary; Mrs. O. L. Bradley, Lexington, treasurer, and Miss Mary Evans, Louisville, supt. children's work. We hoped to publish a list of the visiting ladies, but not being able to procure it in full, preferred not to furnish a partial report.

After prayer and song the body adjourned sine die.

The 15th Annual Kentucky Missionary Convention met Wednesday morning at the Christian church under the most favorable auspices. The atmosphere purified and cooled by electricity and rain, was delightfully pleasant, and the hundreds of delegates that thronged the pretty decorated church seem to appreciate the importance of the occasion and feel that it was good to be there. Rev. W. E. Ellis delivered the welcoming address in his usually warm-hearted and easy manner, which was responded to by Rev. J. S. Kendrick, of Danville, who said that while the words of welcome were beautifully expressed the delegates had felt the welcome by a united action of the people, which spoke louder than words could do. He then branched out upon the church work, the needs of the hour and the importance of greater zeal and effort for the Master's cause.

Rev. J. S. Kendrick is president of the State organization and presides over the meetings with dignified promptness. H. W. Elliott, financial agent, made a report of the year's work, which showed 40 laborers in the field, 644 days given to the work and 1,987 additions to the church; 26 preachers located, 31 Sunday schools, 16 prayer meetings and three churches organized; $2,500 raised. The entire sum raised by the combined missionary workers were $62,500.

Hugh McClelland, of Australia, delivered an address on Typical Preachers which was much enjoyed.

In the afternoon the devotional exercises were conducted by Elder James Vernon, of Henderson, editor of the South Kentucky Evangelist, and then the bright and brainy Rev. George Darsie, of Frankfort, addressed the convention on "The Future of Our State Sunday-School Work." Like all his efforts, this was an excellent one and had a telling effect for at its close $215 were raised on his appeal to liquidate a debt standing against the work. Mr. Darsie has but recently returned from a tour of Egypt, Palestine, Asia Minor, Greece and other countries of the old world and his vast supply of information on the Bible and historical matters have been greatly augmented.

Elder Victor W. Dorris, of Nicholasville, next spoke on "The Sunday-School and Missions," and F. W. Dowling presented the claims of "Our Orphans' Home" so earnestly and pathetically that immediate action was taken to its full endorsement.

The committee on nominations for officers of the ensuing year reported J. J. Haley, of Cynthiana, for president; W. F. Rogers, of Bardonia, for secretary, and H. W. Elliott for State evangelist and the report was unanimously adopted.

W. J. Loos, editor of the Guide, and C. W. Dick, both of Louisville, are untiring workers. The programs printed and presented by the Guide were beautiful and a fine advertisement for that paper.

After devotional exercises at night by George A. Miller, Rev. J. J. Haley addressed the body on the "Motives of the Missionary Work," which was listened to with marked attention by an audience that packed every inch of space in the large church.

Following this the resolution offered by J. M. Rash, of Winchester, in the afternoon to take pledges in support of the Christian Church Widows and Orphan's Home, Louisville, was adopted and put into effect at once, by calling for such pledges. The sums raised aggregate nearly $1,100. The song service was conducted by J. W. McGarvey, Jr., and it was a delightful feature.

THURSDAY MORNING.

The committee on future work reported a resolution that the Kentucky Christian Missionary Convention take out articles of incorporation. This resolution was referred to the State missionary board. A second resolution recommending that the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Christian church of the State, raise funds to place in the field an evangelist, was adopted. The Sunday-schools were requested to support an evangelist in the State.

The church extension work was presented by Prof. J. W. McGarvey.

The Ways and Means Committee reported resolutions urging that every church in the State be enlisted in raising funds in the support of the State missionary work.

A pathetic resolution referring to the afflictions of G. W. Yancey was offered and properly disposed of.

One of the very best addresses delivered was that by Rev. F. B. Walker, of Eminence, on "Duty of Preachers to Missions," and it elicited much favorable comment.

A number of brief talks were made by Dr. George S. Savage, of the American Bible Society, Bro. Cave, J. A. Lord, editor of the Christian Standard, J. T. Hawkins and the grand old soldier, John I. Rogers.

The afternoon sessions began with a ten minutes' talk by R. K. Crossfield, of Glasgow. This was followed by an inspiring and stirring address by F. M. Rains, secretary of the Foreign Missionary Society. I. J. Spencer, of Lexington, supplemented F. M. Rains' speech on foreign missionary work.

The convention was to close last night with a Y. P. S. C. E. session to be led by W. D. Rice, superintendent of C. E. societies in Christian churches of Kentucky. Address, Judge John D. Ellis, president C. E. Kentucky State Union. Address, I. J. Spencer. Adjournment.

Last night's session closed one of the best conventions that has yet been held in the State. It was full of energy, work and practical speeches. J. S. Kendrick, the president, has reflected much credit upon himself by his wise and impartial course as the presiding officer. H. W. Elliott, the State evangelist, has built himself up in the full confidence of the brotherhood, who have learned to love him and to prize his valuable services.

CONVENTIONALITIES.

Mrs. H. W. Elliott of Sulphur, is one of the best singers in the body. They looked up the organ and tried the old fashioned way of singing, but it wasn't near so good.

Mrs. A. G. Wornall, of Paris, Mrs. D. A. Grimes and Mrs. Jane Stansifer, of Covington, are among the earnest workers of the mission.

Mrs. Fannie Moore, a delegate from Paris, suffered several hemorrhages and had to be taken home Wednesday, much to the regret of those who met her.

The I. J. is indebted to Miss Susie Sublett, the capable and accommodating secretary of the C. W. B. M., for assistance in getting up the report of that body.

Rev. P. H. Duncan, pastor of the Ludlow church and ex secretary of the State S. S. work, laid us under obligations for notes and explanations we could hardly have supplied from another source.

They were here yesterday from the four corners. All the surrounding counties were represented by large delegations, who came over to see if Stanford had overreached herself and they found out she hadn't.

The women, God bless them, labored early and late to make the occasion memorable for its hospitality to the visitors and right well did they succeed. Besides entertaining them at their homes, they spread dinner three days at Walton's Opera House—and such dinners! The tables were laden with substantial and luxuries and each day there was enough left almost to feed as many more, although 435 dined sumptuously Tuesday, over 600 Wednesday and 800 yesterday. All who assisted and contributed deserve the highest praise, but if we weren't afraid of offending the others, we would make honorable mention of at least six, whose names ought to be written in letters of gold and pictures of silver.

Among the prominent preachers from abroad who are in attendance at this convention are numbered: J. A. Lord, F. M. Rains, of Cincinnati, and S. D. Perkinson, of Texas.

Revs. George Darsie, Frankfort; R. Lynn Cave, Nashville, Tenn.; E. T. Edmonds, Boston, Mass.; H. K. Pendleton, Pittsburg, Pa.; H. L. Willett, C. L. Loos, B. C. Deweese, Robert Graham, J. T. Hawkins, J. B. Jones, J. W. McGarvey, G. L. Surber, Lexington; W. A. Gibson, W. J. Loos, Louisville; C. K. Marshall, Harrodsburg; W. C. Prewitt, J. S. Rogers, W. B. Taylor, Versailles; Geo. Taubman, Newport, F. M. Finder, Mayslick; W. S. Willis, North Middletown; George Gowan, Lancaster; F. B. Walker, Eminence; Wm. H. Cord, Hazel Green; M. D. Clubb, Midway; H. D. Clark, Mt. Sterling; P. H. Duncan, Ludlow; C. W. Dick, F. M. Dowling, Campbellsville; V. W. Darris, Nicholasville; H. W. Elliott, Sulphur; R. D. Harding, Newport; J. J. Haley, Cynthiana; W. S. Keene, Winchester; J. S. Kendrick, Danville; T. P. Graham, Louisville.

Robert Giddons, Harriman, Tenn., E. B. Scofield, Indiana, W. Logan Williams, Hustonville, S. A. Collier, Rockcastle.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Jarvis Cook has discovered that he is a first class medium and is holding seances every week.

—Mrs. J. W. Nesbitt was appointed delegate by the Christian church to attend the State missionary convention at Stanford this week.

—The Jackson county delegates were enthusiastic over the nomination of their man and extended the hand of good fellowship and other ingredients to all.

—The little girl left by a sister of Mr. F. Krueger, that has been very low for some time, is improving. Mr. K. is giving the little one a father's care and seems to think more of the little one than of his big boys.

—The preliminary survey of the Kentucky Southern began under charge of Capt. W. H. Spradlin on Aug. 12th was finished up on the 21st and proves highly satisfactory to the president of the road who arrived here on the day of completion of survey.

—The first safety bicycle owned by a citizen of this town arrived last week. There are now two here and orders are out for four more. Lack of good roads explains the delay in being in the swim. Roads are being improved and the bicyclists are encouraging the good work and lending a helping hand.

—The republican convention for nominating a candidate for Senator for the 17th State Senatorial district met here Monday. After a heated session held up to 11 o'clock at night an adjournment was had. On Tuesday Wm. H. Clark, of Jackson, received the nomination on 59th ballot. Among the candidates were John D. Jarvis, of Knox, Hon. Trimble, of Pulaski, and Mr. Wm. H. Clark, of Jackson. In balloting R. L. Ewell, of Laurel, and J. B. Lair, of Rockcastle, received a number of votes. Ewell came near receiving the nomination. Judge Morrow, the best man in the republican party, was on hand working for his countryman.

Is Kentucky a Doubtful State?

The peculiar political conditions that exist in Kentucky have led many people to believe that the State is a doubtful one and that the republicans have a chance to carry it this fall. For this reason there is great interest both at home and abroad, in accurate and reliable political news from all parts of the State. The Weekly Courier Journal is now covering this field perfectly and it is publishing the news without bias or prejudice. A close reader of the Weekly Courier Journal should be able to forecast in advance what will be the outcome of the State election next November. In addition to giving all the political news and all the news of every kind, the Weekly Courier Journal is offering to its subscribers $5,000 in cash presents for guesses as to the exact vote and closest to the exact vote that will be received by the democratic, republican and populist candidates for governor of Kentucky. The price of the paper is only $1 a year. Sample copies containing full details of the cash present plan will be sent free to any address. Write to Courier Journal Company, Louisville, Ky.

HUSTONVILLE.

—Mr. John Goode had a fine young mare badly injured by being kicked on the leg by another horse a few days ago.

—The attendance at the public school this year is so far beyond the expectations of the trustees that sufficient accommodations were not provided and now those worthy gentlemen are casting about for desks to seat the extra pupils.

—June Reid's life is made miserable by a boil on the back of his neck, but is mighty glad that he isn't as bad off as Job was. C. T. Griggs, who has been experiencing what it is to have a carbuncle for the last 10 days, is able to be out again.

—The new safe for the Liberty bank passed through town last Saturday. We suppose it is large enough to keep safely all the funds of our neighbors in Casey, unless our friend, Dr. Tom Bohon, should sell his great discovery for destroying the enemies and accelerating the growth of young garden plants and deposit the proceeds there.

—There is a beautiful table on exhibition at F. B. Twidwell's drug store made in the Frankfort penitentiary by Odie Paul, sent up from this county, for killing a negro at McKinney. The top of the table consists of an intricate piece of mosaic work in different colors and words of different varieties. There are several thousand pieces of wood in the pattern. It is to be raffled for Paul's benefit.

—Cole Carpenter, our highly respected townsman, is the fortunate possessor of a greatly prized and wonderful cat. This cat has an accomplishment that is very useful these warm evenings, that of catching bats. But she does not wait to pounce upon them after being knocked on the floor, but springs into the air and catches them on the wing. If after lunging on bat she feels a little thirsty, she perches herself upon the rim of the slop bucket and reaching her paw down into the water brings a handful to her mouth and sips until satisfied.

—Rev. E. M. C. Dunklin, of Louisville Theological Seminary, preached Wednesday night of last week at the Baptist church. He spent a few days here selling religious books and reported that he did exceedingly well. Rev. Carl Metzler, of Danville, preached last Sunday to a large and attentive audience at the Presbyterian church. We notice that Rev. W. E. Foster, pastor elect of the Middleburg Baptist church and well-known here, was ordained to the full work of the gospel ministry last Sunday night in Louisville. There will be services at the Presbyterian church at McKinney next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock A. M.

—This fruitful season has resulted in bringing to the front many fine specimens of vegetables. The first water-melons of the season appeared upon our streets last week and the indications are that they will be plentiful, cheap and of fine quality. Mr. V. B. Morse invited a dozen friends last Monday to assist him in eating a 36 pound melon grown in his garden, Monday night. John Goode was exhibiting two tomatoes, one weighing 1 lb. and 8 oz., and the other 1 lb. and 12 oz. He also brought down town a couple of stalks of corn from his field on the Danville pike measuring 14 feet in length. John Rout beat this, however, with a stalk measuring 16 feet and large in proportion.

—While Mr. Billy Williams was riding with Millard Allen in his break cart, he was thrown backward from the vehicle and fell to the pike with great force, resulting in a fracture of the right arm at the elbow. While suffering considerable pain he is thankful to have escaped with no worse injury. Mr. Wm. Spragins, of the Fork, also met with a painful accident last Monday. While inspecting a bridge just beyond Mrs. Harper's, on the Bradfordsville pike, of which he is president, the horse he was driving became unruly and began to kick, striking Mr. Spragins just below the left knee and inflicting a serious wound and possibly breaking the bone.

—Will Blaine, of Grant county, arrived Monday on a visit to relatives in this community. He is with the family of Squire Ellis at present. Sam Lusk has accepted a lucrative and responsible position with the weather bureau and is stationed near Harriman, Tenn. His old friends here will now expect to be favored in the way of weather. Dr. Ed Alcorn was in Chattanooga last week. Ed Hopper is visiting his little daughter and many friends here. Mr. Rudolph and wife, nee Carpenter, are visiting Emmet McCormack's family. Judge Boyle Stone and George E. Stone, of Liberty, were with us last week. Miss Jessie Cook has returned home after a pleasant visit to Lawrenceburg and other points. H. W. Drye and wife and child, who have been visiting his father, Steve Drye, left last week for their home in Washington county, seven miles below Springfield.

—Henry Haggard, a 16-year-old boy, was fatally wounded by Frank Jones, about the same age, at Winchester. Jones in jest attempted to shoot through Haggard's hat.

W. P. WALTON.

We acknowledge to a deep and bitter disappointment over the opening speech of Gen. P. W. Hardin. Taken generally it was not up to what was expected of him at any point, and his construction of the platform to agree with his preconceived ideas with reference to the silver question has made democrats who had hoped for better things, both heart-sick and despondent over the outlook. His position on the money question is in open defiance to the platform adopted by so large a majority of the State convention and has driven many democrats from his support. He read his speech, which dealt largely in matters of a rather ancient date, and when the crowd called him down and asked for a discussion of present issues, he is alleged to have gotten rattled and lost his place on the manuscript, talking about five minutes to find it. His position is the same on the money question as Senator Blackburn, whose course was rebuked in the State convention. Gen. Hardin's idea seems to be that he is greater than his party, reasoning that the party knew his views before it nominated him and that that was a semi-endorsement of them, notwithstanding the platform adopted.

We write this in sorrow and not in anger. We admire Gen. Hardin personally, but the success of the party is nearer and dearer to us than the aspirations of any man. He has put both in jeopardy and made a hard fight the harder by his course. It has always been our rule to submit to a decision of the majority and we had hoped Gen. Hardin was as good a democrat. We haven't given him up, however. We hope that he will get his eyes opened as he goes over the State and realize the hurt he is doing the democratic party. The INTERIOR JOURNAL will support its editor will vote the democratic ticket, as both have never failed to do, but we can not force down the misgivings that we feel for its ultimate success.

The speech of Col. Bradley delighted his party as much as Gen. Hardin's disappointed his. His views were clearly stated and his effort was strong and manly. He is for the gold standard till an international agreement on silver is reached and stands squarely upon the platform built for him. Barring his loose statements with reference to democratic management of affairs in Kentucky and a presentation of figures, which while they may not lie straight out, prevaricated considerably, his speech met fully expectations regarding it. We dislike to admit it, but he got decidedly the best of the first round.

The Rev. F. Grider, republican candidate for the Legislature in Casey and Russell, says our correspondent misrepresented him in his statement that he is a "free turnpike," and demands the names of the "several republicans" told him he was for throwing open the pike gates. If the reverend brother will re-adjust his spectacles and examine the letter, he will see that it does not say that republicans told the writer so, but "several republicans told him that Bro. Grider is not a popular man in his party." This statement he stands by and the preacher had best not call for a bill of particulars.

The democracy of Ohio is to be congratulated. The convention at Springfield adopted an honest money platform, endorsed President Cleveland and Senator Brice, denounced the present administration of Ohio and the work of the last Legislature and nominated a State ticket, all by 2:40 p. m. the same day it convened. Senator Bruce was on top all along the line and his ticket was nominated by acclamation, headed by ex-Gov. James E. Campbell for governor. The party in the Buckeye State seems to have gotten together and intend to redeem the State.

If the court of appeals will keep its hands off and the governor will padlock his pardon mill, Harlan county will have a much needed hanging—possibly two of them. Overton, one of the men who murdered the peddler, Loeb, has been sentenced to death and his partner in the crime, Scott, will likely receive a similar sentence. The murder was peculiarly atrocious and the murderers richly deserve death.

Those of us who were hoping for better news from the second debate of Hardin and Bradley at Mayfield are again disappointed. Hardin reaffirmed the position he took at Louisville and declined to say what kind of a Senator he would appoint should such a duty devolve upon him, except that he would stand squarely upon the National platform. A way with such subterfuges.

An election to determine whether Atlanta shall be wet or dry will likely be held, but not until after the exposition, the old soaks will be glad to know. The prohibitionists have made several efforts there to banish the saloon, but they have accomplished nothing more yet except a stricter regulation of the dram shops.

Quay seems to have everything his way in Pennsylvania.

The Louisville Post and the Anzeiger, the leading German newspaper of same city, have repudiated Gen. Hardin and we fear a great many voters will do likewise. The Post calls upon him to withdraw and upon his failure to do so, demands that the committee retire him. The Louisville Times wants to support Hardin and will do so "if he will kindly and consistently leave a fulcrum for our little but loud and willin' lever."

The Courier-Journal seems to have been knocked so silly by Hardin's speech that it has not been able to tell "where it is at," editorially.

Democrats everywhere are cast down and disaffection exists on all sides.

The State Central Committee has been called to meet at Louisville to-morrow to consider and try to cure the disaffection created by Gen. Hardin's speech. Many leading democrats, including Hon. Boyd Winchester and Judge Burnett, flatly refuse to support Hardin now.

What shall it profit democracy if it gain a whole convention and declare for sound money and then lose out by the conduct of its candidates?

—William Duval, from Owen county, who was last a student at Georgetown College, was taken to the Lexington lunatic asylum. Young Duval imagines that he is about to close a deal for the Phoenix Hotel in Lexington, which he intends to move to Georgetown.

—While the Rev. W. W. Hall was preaching the funeral sermon of H. L. Wilson, in Lewis county, screams were heard at the river 400 yards distant. An unknown boatman in attempting to land his boat was taken with cramps and drowned in the presence of his wife and children.

—L. M. Whildin, a wool-dealer of Philadelphia, who has just returned from Montana, says that this year Western wool-growers will get "$6,000,000 more for their wool than they expected." When McKinley reads such reports he begins to suspect for the first time what calamity means.

—The winter turf oats as its name implies grows in turfs like timothy, one grain producing often from 40 to 80 stems with good heads, which makes them yield from 40 to 60 bushel on good land. One bushel per acre is best amount to sow and from Aug. 15 to October best time. The earlier sown the better grazing, they will produce more grazing than any small grain crop grown here. Stock are fond of it and it does not taint milk as rye; very hardy winter grown grazes well late in April.

—We are in receipt of the following from Barnhart Bros. & Spindler, the anti-trust type foundry:

CHICAGO, Aug. 19, 1895.

In the INTERIOR JOURNAL of Aug. 16th we note your very sensible editorial paragraph respecting the paper trust. It seems to us that the wise paper dealer will not go into such an arrangement if he will pause a minute to reflect that the people he deals with with are as a rule men of conviction and high purpose. It might be easy to form a beer trust or a whisky trust, or a sugar trust, because all classes of people use these articles, but as a rule only those of the most intelligence use printing paper. The experience of Barnhart Bros. & Spindler is, that printers and publishers as a rule, mean just what they say, and that their opposition to the trust is not for political effect or bunkum, but down deep conviction, and that they give effect to their words by their actions. We have had occasion to feel proud of the craft with which we are so closely connected, for they have stood nobly by us in the determination to prevent a type trust from becoming a monopoly. Thanking you for your pleasant expressions concerning us, we are yours truly,

BARNHART BROS. & SPINDLER.

DROPPED DEAD.—Mr. Cy. Watson, who lived near Holdam's Mill, started to Brodhead with a load of ties Wednesday morning. While walking along behind his wagon chatting with a friend, he suddenly expired from heart disease. He was nearly 50 years of age and leaves a family.

A BIG HAUL.—Judge J. M. Tilford, of Casey, was here Wednesday and told us of a big haul made by thieves on the safe belonging to Mr. John W. Whipp, of Liberty, Tuesday night. When Mr. Whipp went to his store Wednesday morning he discovered his safe unlocked and investigation proved that $900 in cash had been taken. Checks amounting to nearly $500 were also in the safe, but were not disturbed. Entrance was effected through the window and as the safe was not damaged it looks as if the work was done by experts or by some one who had secured the combination.

JOHN LEE, a colored blacksmith living on the Hanging Fork, had a writ issued Wednesday for Henry Harper, for giving him a worthless check on the First National Bank for a mule. The writ was given to Constable Benedict and when that officer went to arrest Harper, he jumped from a window into his corn field and the constable saw nothing more of him. A 15-year-old son of Harper, who was fined $10 and costs for cutting a colt's tail off, and who had not paid the fine was there and Mr. Benedict, not to be outdone on his raid, brought him here and placed him jail. Harper had promised to pay his son's fine.

THE judge and county attorney have agreed to stop prosecuting the saloon keepers at Rowland, provided they will shut up shop till the court of appeals has passed upon the question submitted to it. They have agreed to do so and Mr. Thomas Morrissey is relieved of all prosecution so far as the county court is concerned, by leaving the county.

FIRE.—The dwelling of Dr. J. D. Pettus, of Crab Orchard, was discovered on fire at an early hour yesterday morning and before assistance arrived it was nearly consumed. Only the contents of the two front rooms were saved. The Christian church, which is next door, came very near burning and the doctor's office caught several times, but not much damage was done it. The dwelling and contents were insured for $1,000 in the Phoenix, of Hartford, but that amount will not cover the loss. Dr. Pettus is satisfied that the fire was the work of an incendiary and will spare no time nor means in trying to bring the guilty party to justice.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Miss Mary Elizabeth Manning, daughter of the late secretary of the treasury, was married to Jules Cornelius von der Oudemulen, a Holland Dutchman.

—Mr. L. P. Gray, a well-known engineer with headquarters at Livingston, was married at Crab Orchard Tuesday to Miss Eva, the handsome daughter of Mr. Wiley Dishon, of the Preachersville vicinity. Miss Dishon had been making her home at George D. Pope's at Livingston for some time.

—James W. Ferguson, claiming to be a wealthy blooded horse breeder of Campbellville, Ky., appeared at the festivities attending the ninth anniversary of the marriage of D. W. Sweeney at Washington and created a big sensation by claiming that Sweeney's alleged wife was in reality his spouse, who had deserted him in 1886. There was a big row and a scene, but Ferguson secured possession of his wife and is going to bring her back to Kentucky.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. C. E. Powell will begin a meeting at Junction City this Friday night.

—Rev. Wesley G. Miller pastor, of the Broadway Methodist church, Louisville, died suddenly of neuralgia of the heart.

—Rev. A. V. Sizemore, who is holding a meeting at Mt. Tabor, writes that he will be home in time to conduct services Sunday.

—Revs. Newson and Robinson, of Wilmore, have just closed meetings at Pleasant Point and Highland in which there were over 200 sanctifications.

—J. L. Bruce was re-elected moderator by the old South district association, which convened at Perryville yesterday, and Edw. H. Fox was made clerk.—Advocate.

MIDDLEBURG, CASEY COUNTY.

—There was quarterly meeting at the Methodist church Saturday.

—Marion Spears and Nute Wells had an altercation at Yosemite Saturday night and Spears mashed Wells' mouth all over his face with a club.

—Miss Mattie Durban was taken very ill Sunday, but is much better now. Rev. Foster went to Louisville Saturday to be ordained. J. R. Jones, who went to Texas some two years ago, is here visiting his brother, Mike.

—The Wells brothers' picnic Saturday did not amount to much. There was no string band there to furnish music, neither was there any wire walking done as advertised and Col. Silas Adams did not make a speech.

—T. J. Baldock will be the democratic candidate to represent this and Russell counties in the Legislature. There is not a better man in the county than Tom and none that deserves the support of the party more than he. Tom is a democrat, but not a strenuous one by any means and hence will be supported by many republicans.

—Rev. Grider is out in posters, written in an unmistakable hand, free from hieroglyphics and heavily underscored, denying that he favors free turnpikes, but is "unalterably" opposed to the measure. Bro. Grider is a good preacher and ought to remain here and continue to do what he can do so well and let Tom Baldock do the law-making for us. And it now looks that he will be forced to do so.

—A Valparaiso, Ind., man shot his neighbor because he kept a dog that bothered his slumbers.

—William H. Clark, of Jackson county, was nominated on the 59th ballot in the republican convention at Mt. Vernon Tuesday as a candidate from the 17th State Senatorial district.

It always puzzles an honest man to know how rogues succeed in passing worthless checks when he himself, with an honest check, has to be identified all along the line from the days of Adam down to where he slept last night.—Salt Lake Tribune.

HUBBLE.

—E. W. Engleman and wife have gone to Versailles to visit her parents.

—Mr. Ed. Minor is spending a few days with friends in this community.

—J. C. Eubanks & Bro. sold a pair of work mules in Danville Monday for $200.

—S. Dunbar and Mrs. Lay have gone to Russell county for a few weeks visit.

—Jacob Robinson is at home for a few days shaking hands with his many friends.

—S. Dunbar sold his crop of timothy hay to Tom Alexander at 50c per cwt. in the stack.

—Al and Hartwell Luce sold some 4-year old mules for $50 and some 2-year old mules for $30 to M. J. Farris. James Engleman sold his sorrel buggy mare to E. T. Minor for $75.

—Bro. Arnold gave us a good sermon Sunday. He has made the church a good Shepherd and all will regret to see him leave this work.

—Henrietta, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Milburn, died Tuesday night. The little thing had been sick for a week or more and in fact had never been strong. Its sufferings were intense and its screams brought many a tear from the fond parents who are all most crushed by their loss.

PUBLIC SALE

A VALUABLE BLUE GRASS FARM.

I will on the premises on

Wednesday, Sept. 18, '95,

Offer at public sale the valuable tract of land in Garrard County, Ky., on the turnpike road leading from Danville to Lexington, known as "the Camp Dick Robinson Farm." The Farm Contains about 335 Acres,

And is one of the very best and richest tracts of land in the State of Kentucky. It is first-class hemp, tobacco and grass land and is in a high state of cultivation.

It is Well Fenced.

With the very best post and railing, nearly new and in good repair. The dwelling house contains ten or twelve rooms. It has recently been remodeled and is in every respect a comfortable, modern dwelling house, in a fine state of preservation.

IN SPLENDID REPAIR, VERY ATTRACTIVE

No more comfortable or more desirable home, either for stock or agricultural purposes, can be found in Central Kentucky.

It is Conveniently Located on Fine Turnpikes and is well Watered

From never-failing Springs that seem to be absolutely inexhaustible, with toughs attached; will water 200 head of stock in driest seasons. There are several good outhouses, a large, new tobacco barn that will hold 50 acres of tobacco, and three tenement houses.

The land is not only on good turnpikes, but of easy access to the C. & C. & N. and L. S. railroads, and to Danville, Lancaster, Bryantsville, Harrodsburg and Lexington.

Full possession of the property will be given January 1, 1896, with the usual privilege of seeding in small grain during the Fall.

The land will be offered in parcels and then as a whole and the best bid accepted. Other terms reasonable and made known on day of sale.

NEWSFROM NEWYORK

A Danville Merchant :

Says Goods Will be Cheap this Fall, and Orders a Cut on His Stock.

ST. DENIS HOTEL,
Broadway and Eleventh Sts.,
New York, Aug. 10, '95.

DEAR FRIEND HARRIS:

I am delighted with the Metropolis; it is a wonderful commercial center, and this hotel is a beauty and very spacious; judging from the throng which continually crowd the lobby one would suppose that it could accommodate all the people of Danville.

Say, old boy, it pays a fellow big to come here instead of buying goods at home. Not only do we get much lower prices, but you have the best and the finest to make your selections from.

We are scouring the market and we feel sure that our stock when complete will be the finest, best selected, and lower in price than any that was ever shown in our thriving little city, and if we don't largely increase our business there will be something wrong with the intelligence and frugality that has heretofore characterized Danville buyers.

Every thing here indicates the return of good times, and am governed by our purchases accordingly.

Give my regards to Cap, and all inquiring friends, and sell the balance of our spring goods, even if you suffer some loss, as we must have every inch of room for our fall and winter stock.

Expect to be home about the latter part of next week, and hope this finds you as well as it leaves us. I am

Yours Very Truly,
J. L. FROHMAN.
